For discussion purposes only; not an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any security. Final terms, including issuer, security, and payment dates, are governed by the executed promissory note. Figures assume simple interest at 22% per annum on $100,000, paid monthly over 24 months; the final payment is adjusted for rounding. Return of principal is a return of capital and not a taxable event; interest is generally taxable to the recipient as ordinary income.
